Notes Regarding Music for Advent

Advent is a season of reflection and anticipation when we try to "make straight our path" in spite of all the distractions like Christmas shopping, parties, and travel. In an effort to reflect this change in theme and tone, I have selected music that is more subdued with the intention that it should build up to Christmas. In order to maintain this musical concept, I humbly ask that any substitutions should support this change in emphasis. If we use too much big, full-bodied music during Advent, then the Christmas season will lose some of its "zing" and will seem not much different. Therefore, please help to maintain this focus through Advent. Thanks!
